

The Gulls Eggs

war

►noun

- Armed conflict between countries or large groups and their armies, e.g. These are pictures from the First World War; In the 1960's there was a war between India and China.

warm

►adjective

- Between hot and cold, e.g. The tea is still warm.

warn

►verb

- To give a warning; to make someone aware of impending danger etc; e.g. The police officer waved a flag to warn the oncoming traffic about the accident

quart

►noun

- A unit of liquid measure used in USA, slightly less than 1 litre , e.g. He put a quart of sugar into the cake mix.

fast

►adverb

1. Quickly, with great speed; within a short time e.g. Do it as fast as you can.
2. Ahead of the correct time, e.g. I think my watch is running fast; Your watch is fast, it is not 11 o'clock, it is only 10.45.

►verb (fast, fasting, fasted)

- To not eat because of religious or health reasons, e.g. We are fasting for Sri Krishna Jannastami.

►noun

- The period of time during which one abstains from or eats very little food, e.g. Ekadasi is a fast of Vaishnavas.
- Moving with great speed, or capable of doing so; swift, rapid, e.g. I am going to buy a fast car; Stop talking so fast!

last

►adjective

- Final, ultimate, coming after all others of its kind, e.g. The fourth duckling is the last in line; This is the last tiger left in the forest; I could not sleep last night.

►verb

- To continue, e.g. Summer seems to last longer each year; Do not chew the toffee, suck it and it will last longer.

past

►noun

- The period of time that has already happened, in contrast to the present and the future, e.g. He did used to go to dance class in the past; In the past he was my friend, not now.

nest

►noun

1. A structure built by a bird as a place to keep eggs and raise baby birds, e.g. The bird build a nest in the tree.

best

►adjective

- Superlative form of good, e.g. Krishna is the best dancer; I am the best singer in my class.

►noun

- (uncountable) The supreme effort one can make, e.g. I did my best.

pest

►noun

1. An annoying, harmful, often destructive creature, e.g. Our garden has become full of pests.
2. An annoying person, e.g. My sister is a pest.

rest

►noun

1. Time to recharge the body, e.g. I need to get a good rest tonight, I was up late last night.
2. Peace; freedom from worry, anxiety, annoyances; tranquility, e.g. It needed to have a rest from the phone ringing so I switched it off.
3. The remaining, unused part, e.g. She ate some of the food then put the rest in the refrigerator to finish later.

►verb (rest, resting, rested)

1. To be in a state of rest, e.g. My day's work is over; now I will rest.
2. To lean, lie, or lay, e.g. I rested my head in my hands; I rested against the wall for a minute.

test

►noun

- An examination, e.g. We are having a maths test on Monday, I have to study.

►verb (test, testing, tested)

- To administer or assign an examination, e.g. Our teacher will ask questions to test how much we remember of the lesson.

vest

►noun

1. A sleeveless garment that buttons down the front, worn over a shirt, and often as part of a suit; a waistcoat, e.g. The man in the picture is wearing a black vest.
2. An inner garment used to keep warm, e.g. He was wearing a vest under his shirt.

west

► noun

1. One of the four principal compass points, e.g. Goa, Gujara and Maharastra are in the west of India.

► adjective

1. Situated or lying in or toward the west; westward, e.g. Walk towards the west coast.

chest

► noun

1. A trunk; a large strong box with a secure lid, e.g.

The clothes are kept in a chest.

2. The part of the human body from the base of the neck to the top of the stomach, e.g. She had a sudden pain in her chest.

forest

► noun

- Jungle; a place with many trees, e.g. We went for a walk in the forest.

fist

► noun

- A hand with the fingers curled inward, e.g. Make your hand into a fist.

list

► noun

- A piece of paper with many items written on it, usually in point form, e.g. She made a shopping list; This is my list of things to do before we leave for the trip.

mist

►noun

1. Low cloud; fog, e.g. It was difficult to see through the morning mist.

lost [past tense of 'lose']

►verb

1. To fail; to win a game or competition, e.g. We lost the cricket match.
2. To experience the death of someone, e.g. She lost all her sons in the war.

►Adjective

- Unable to find one's way; unavailable, with location unknown, e.g. She was far behind the group and she got lost in the forest; My keys are lost.

lose

►verb [lose, losing, lost]

- To cause something to get lost, e.g. If you lose that ten pound note, you'll be sorry; I am losing my interest in t.v.

cost

►noun

- The amount of money that is required to buy something, e.g. The total cost of the new temple was $1.5 million.

►verb (cost, costing)

- To incur a charge, a price, e.g. This shirt cost $50.

just

►adverb

- Only, simply, merely, e.g. Just give me a few minutes, then I will be back; He did not say that he didnt like you, he just said that he finds it difficult to talk to you.

►adjective

- Factually fair; correct; proper, e.g. The judge made a just decision.

dust

►noun

- Fine, dry particles of dirt found in the air and covering the surface of objects, e.g. The room had been closed for 3 months so there was dust over everything.

►verb

- To remove dust from, e.g. The cleaning lady needs a stool to dust the cupboard; Can you please dust the windows?

gust

►noun

- A strong, abrupt rush of wind, e.g. A gust of wind came and blew away my newspaper.

must

►verb [modal]

1. Required, compulsory, e.g. You must finish your homework before you go out to play.
2. Is definitely, e.g. If it rained all day, it must be very wet outside.

rust

►noun

- The red covering of metal when it gets old, e.g. The rust on my bicycle chain made it difficult to pedal.
- To get old and red, e.g. My metal bucket rusted from the salty water,

lust

►noun

- A feeling of strong desire, especially of a sexual nature, e.g. We pray to Krishna to remove lust and greed from our hearts.

►verb (lust, lusting, lusted)

- To very strongly desire, e.g. When Shivaji saw Krishna's form of Mohini, he lusted over her and ran towards her.

toast

►noun

- Cooked bread, e.g. I ate a piece of toast for breakfast; Do you like toast and honey or toast and jam?

►verb (toast, toasting, toasted)

- To say "cheers" before taking the first sip of a drink, e.g. Lets say a toast to our school principal for all his hard work this year.

roast

►verb (roast, roasting, roasted)

- To cook food by heating in an oven, e.g. English people roast potatoes and pumpkin instead of frying them.

►adjective

- having been cooked in an oven, e.g. The roast potatoes were served at lunch today.

►noun

- a cut of meat that has been roasted or is intended for roasting, e.g. She carved the Sunday roast for dinner.

boost

►noun

- A push from below to help someone who is trying to climb, e.g. Can you give me a boost so that I can climb over this fence?

►verb (boost, boosting, boosted)

- To help in making advancement; e.g. Winning the competition was a boosted his confidence; If you study for 2 hours per day it will boost your performance.

and

►conjunction

1. With; also; along with; as well as, e.g. I ate peaches and cream.
2. Plus, e.g. Six and six equal twelve.

hand

►noun

1. The end of the arm; the palm and fingers, e.g. Please hold my hand while we cross the road.
2. To help, e.g. Bob gave Alice a hand to move the furniture; Can you give me a hand to paint the house?
3. The two needles on a clock, e.g. If the big hand is on the 12 and the little hand is on the 3, that means it is 3 o'clock.

sand

►noun

1. The dirt found on beaches, deserts, and dry places, e.g. Krishna liked to play in the sand at Raman Reti.

band

►noun

1. A strip of material wrapped or plastic around things; e.g. When we registered for Braj Mandal Parikrama, we got these wrist bands.
2. A group of musicians, e.g. He plays drums in a band.

land

►noun

- The part of Earth which is not covered by oceans, e.g. Humans live on land and fish live in water; My parents want to buy some land to build a house.

►verb (land, landing, landed)

- To descend to a surface, especially from the air, e.g. The plane is about to land.

sandpit

►noun

- A children's play area consisting of a large container filled with sand, e.g. The children were playing in the sandpit.

sandwich

►noun

- A snack formed of various ingredients between two slices of bread, e.g. I am having a cheese sandwich for lunch.

end

► noun

- The final point of something in space or time, e.g. This is the end of the railway line, the train does not go any further.

► verb (end, ending, ended)

- To finish, terminate, e.g. The lesson will end when the bell rings; The referee blew the whistle to end the game.

bend

► verb [bend, bending, bent]

- To cause something to change its shape into a curve, e.g. If you bend the pipe too far, it will break; Do not bend the book.

► noun

- A curve, e.g. There's a sharp bend in the road ahead.

mend

► verb (mend, mending, mended)

- To repair something that is torn especially clothing, e.g. My mother is mending my trousers because there is a hole in the knee.

send

► verb (send, sending, sent)

- •
- To post; to make a message or package go from the receiver to the sender, e.g. I need to send a message to my mother to let her know that I will be late; Can you please send this letter?

tend

►verb (tend, tending, tended)

1. Usually, e.g. They are probably asleep, they tend to sleep early; Boys tend to be taller than girls.
2. (use with 'to') To look after, e.g. The nurse was tending to the patient; We need to tend to the garden, it is such a mess.

wind

►noun

- Air as it moves naturally, e.g. The trees are blowing in the wind; The hot summer wind dries out our bodies.

www.shutterstock.com · 29774422

windmill

►noun

- A machine that pumps water, or mills grain by using a fan that is pushed by the wind, e.g. There are many windmills in Holland.

fond

►adjective

- To have a strong liking or affection for, e.g. Bharat was so fond of his pet deer that he could not stop thinking about it; I am very fond of chocolate.

pond

►noun

- A small round body of water usually in a garden, e.g. At the back of Prabhupada's house in Virndavan, there is a pond.

07/06/2004

pondweed

►noun

- Weeds that grow on the top of ponds and rivers, e.g. The tractor is cleaning the pondweed from the river.

under

►preposition

1. Below, e.g. The baby is under the table.
2. At a lower level than, e.g. The room is under the restaurant.

►adverb

1. Under water, e.g. He was floating for a while and then he went under.
2. Below something, e.g. He weaved the thread over and under the guide to make a mat.

►adjective

1. The lowest part of something, e.g. The under part of the desk has gum on it.
2. Unconscious, e.g. The operation was quick, she was only under for 15 minutes.

ant

►noun

- Small insects that eat sugar and crumbs of food, e.g. She left a sweet on the bench and when she returned, it was covered in ants.

pant

►verb (pant, panting)

- (intransitive) To breathe quickly; to gasp, He was panting after his long run.

pants

►noun (used in plural only, i.e. 'pants')

1. Trousers, e.g. He wore brown pants to work.
2. Underpants; an undergarment worn under trousers or a skirt, e.g. Don't forget to take at least 3 pairs of underpants.

bent

►verb [bend, bending, bent]

- To fold, e.g. The spoon bent when I used it to scoop icecream.

►adjective

- Crooked, e.g. This key is bent, it will not open the lock.

dent

►noun

- A hollow place usually caused by an accident, e.g. There is a dent in the bumper of my car from the accident.

lent

►verb [lend, lending, lent]

1. To allow to be used by someone temporarily, e.g. Can you please lend me 20 rupees to buy a bottle of water? I lent her 100 rupees to pay for the train tickets, and she paid me back the next day.

rent

►noun

- A payment to live in a house or use some equipment that is owned by someone else, e.g. We pay rent on the 1st of every month; This month, we do not have enough money to pay the rent.

►verb (rent, renting, rented)

- To live in a house or use equipment in exchange of money, e.g. I did not buy this computer, I am just renting it; Do you own the house or rent it?

tent

►noun

- A temporary house used for camping trips, e.g. Do you know how to put up a tent?

go

►verb (go, going, went, have gone)

- To move from one place to another, e.g. Why don't you go with us? Please go away. Where do you want to go for the holidays?

hint

►noun

- A clue, e.g. I needed a hint to complete the crossword.

►verb (hint, hinting, hinted)

- To suggest without saying directly; to provide a clue e.g. She is hinting that we should go now.

mint

►noun

1. A plant with small leaves and a strong flavour, e.g. She added some mint leaves into the mango chutney; I like mint flavoured candy.
2. A building where money is printed, e.g. We went on a school trip to the mint.

tint

►noun

- Colour, e.g. She has a blue tint in her hair.

►adjective

- (tinted) Coloured or darkened, e.g. He is wearing tinted glasses; Our car has tinted windows to keep the sun out.

hunt

►verb (hunt, hunting, hunted)

- To chase down prey and kill it, e.g. The cat is hunting the bird; Her uncle likes to go hunting in the jungle.

burn

►verb [burn, burning, burnt]

1. On fire, e.g. The garbage was burning on the side of the road.
2. (Of food) To cook too much and become black, e.g. I cannot cook chapatis nicely, I always burn them.

►noun

- To become injured from fire or something hot, e.g. I got this burn from cooking

paint
►noun

- Wet colour to put on walls or on paper, e.g. He brought paint for the new nursery; Put the lid on the paint tin, otherwise it will dry out.

- ►verb [paint, painting, painted]

To apply paint to, e.g. We painted our house for before Diwali; When do you think the painter will come to paint the house?

bank

►noun

1. An institution where one can place and borrow money, e.g. Keep your money in the bank and it will be safe.
2. The side of a river, e.g. When Sri Krishna killed the Kalia snake, the gopas and his mother waited on the bank of the river.

rank

►noun

1. One's position in a list, e.g. I am ranked 5th in my English class.
2. A level in an organization such as the military, e.g. 'General' and 'Captain' are high ranks in the army.

tank

►noun

1. A container for liquids or gases, e.g. We have a water tank on our roof.
2. A fighting vehicle used by armies, e.g. Army tanks were first used in the First World War in 1916.

yank

►verb (yank, yanking, yanked)

- To pull something with a quick, strong action, e.g. The baby suddenly yanked my hair.

►noun

- A sudden hard pull, e.g. He gave the tooth a yank and it came out.

thank

►verb

1. To express gratitude or appreciation, e.g. She thanked him for the lift; I want to give you this gift to thank you for helping me when I was in trouble.

sink

►verb [sink, sinking, has sunk, sank]

- (transitive) To cause a vessel to sink, generally by making it no longer watertight, e.g. Ships carry lifeboats so that people will not drown if the ship sinks; The titanic hit an iceberg and sank.

►noun

- A basin used for holding water for washing, e.g. Please wash you hands in the bathroom sink, not in the kitchen sink.

link

►noun

1. One element of a chain or other connected series, e.g. The chain is made up of links; I need to get some of the links taken out of this bracelet to make it shorter.
2. To have a connection, e.g. What is your link to ISKCON? Can you link me up with him.

pink

►noun

- A colour; a mix of red and white; pale red, e.g. My new dress is a wonderful shade of pink.

wink

►verb (wink, winking, winked)

1. To blink with only one eye, e.g. He winked at me to tell me that he was not serious.

think

►verb (think, thinking, thought)

1. To try to find a solution to a problem by using a mental process i.e. Silently talking to yourself, e.g. I am trying to think of a solution for the problem; He thinks a lot.
2. To have the opinion, e.g. I think she is pretty.
3. To guess, e.g. I think it will rain tonight.

bunk

►noun

- Two or three beds, one on top of the other, e.g. I like to sleep on the top bunk; We have bunk beds in our bedroom.

dunk

►verb (dunk, dunking, dunked)

1. To submerge briefly in a liquid, e.g. I like to dunk biscuits in milk.
2. (in basketball) To put the ball directly through the hoop, e.g. The basketball player dunked the ball.

hunk

► noun

1. A large piece of something, e.g. She tore off a hunk of bread and ate it.

junk

► noun

1. Discarded or waste material; rubbish, trash, e.g. They took the junk to the junkyard.

raft

► noun

- A flat structure that floats on water, e.g. We made our own rafts and had a rafting race on the river.

left

► adjective

- The opposite of right, e.g. Turn left at the corner.

► verb [leave, leaving, left]

1. To cause something to remain, e.g. He left all the work for me; I left my car at home and took a bus to work.
2. To go; to depart, e.g. He left at 3 o'clock; Do you know if the bus has already left or not?

leave

►verb [leave, leaving, left]

1. To cause something to remain, e.g. Why did you leave so much food on your plate, aren't you hungry?
2. To go; to depart, e.g. Do you know when you will leave the office today?

►noun

- Holiday, e.g. I took 3 days leave from school to attend my sister's wedding.

gift

►noun

1. Something given with happiness; a present, e.g. This is a birthday gift.
2. A talent or natural ability, e.g. He has a special gift for fixing things; He has the gift of the gab (he is good at talking and convincing people).

lift

►verb [lift, lifting, lifted]

- To raise; to make something go higher, e.g. Superman can lift cars.

►noun

1. The act of transporting someone in a vehicle; a ride, e.g. He gave me a lift to the bus station.
2. (Australia, New Zealand, UK)

An elevator; A machine to take people to the higher floors in a building, e.g. Take the lift to the fourth floor.

sift

►verb (sift, sifting, sifted)

1. To make something pass through a sieve, e.g. Sift the flour to remove any stones or twigs.

shift

►verb (shifted, shifting, shifted)

1. To move from one place to another, e.g. We'll have to shift these boxes to the downstairs office; She shifted slightly in her seat.
2. To change gears (in a car or motorbike), e.g. I slowed down and shifted into first gear.

►noun

- A change of workers, now specifically a set group of workers or period of working time, e.g. I work on the morning shift; When I was a nurse, I used to work night shift.

act

►noun

1. The process of doing something, e.g. He was caught in the act of stealing my bike.
2. A division of a theatrical performance, e.g. In Act 1, I play the roll of Ravan, but in Act 2, I am Vibeshwan.

►verb (act, acting, acted)

1. To perform a theatrical role or pretend, e.g. I started acting at the age of eleven in my local theatre; Do you know how to act? Krishna is acting as though he didn't see Radha; He acted calmly so the others wouldn't worry.
2. To do something, e.g. If you don't act soon, you will be in trouble.
3. To behave in a certain way, e.g. He's acting strangely - I think there's something wrong with him.

fact

►noun

- Something actual or real, not made up or invented, e.g. How many facts about plants can you remember?

next

►adjective

- Following in a sequence, e.g. I am next in line to get an award.

►determiner

- The one immediately following, e.g. Next week would be a good time to meet.

sixth

►adjective

- The ordinal form of the number six, e.g. She was born on the sixth of March.

it's

►contraction

1. It is, e.g. It's too expensive; It's really hot here! It's good to see you here.
2. It has, e.g. It's been a long time since I've had a good nights sleep; It's been five years since I last visited India.

keep

►verb [keep, keeping, kept]

1. To be the owner of, to hold e.g. I keep a small stock of painkillers for emergencies; I keep some money in my purse in case I need to get the bus.

weep

►verb (weep, weeping, wept)

- To cry; to shed tears, e.g. She was weeping during the film.

theft

►noun

- The act of stealing property, e.g. There is a lot of theft in India.

yelp

►verb (yelp, yelping, yelped)

- To bark, or shout of pain, e.g. The dog yelped in pain.

►noun

- To bark, or shout out in pain, e.g. The puppy let out a yelp when I stepped on her tail.

help

►verb (help, helping, helped)

1. To provide assistance to, e.g. He helped his grandfather cook breakfast.

helpdesk

►noun

- A section of an organization where staff answer customer's questions, e.g. Please call the helpdesk and ask them why my internet is not working.

gulp

►verb (gulp, gulping, gulped)

- To swallow quickly, e.g. Sip the tea slowly, do not gulp it. Otherwise you will burn your mouth; It was bitter medicine so I held my nose and gulped it down quickly.

feel

►verb [feel, feeling, felt]

1. To use the sense of touch; a sensation in the skin, e.g. I felt downright hot and miserable evening at night; Feel my arm, there is a lump there where he hit me.
2. To have an emotion or opinion e.g. I can feel the sadness in his poems; I feel tired. How are you feeling?

belt

►noun

- A band worn around the waist to hold up pants, e.g. These jeans are too loose, I need to wear a belt with them.

melt

►verb (melt, melting, melted)

- To change from a solid to a liquid, e.g. I melted butter to make a cake; The snowman will melt in the sun.

shelter

►noun

- A place to be safe, e.g. The tent provided shelter from the rain; Sri Krishna gives us shelter from the problems of the material world.

hold

►verb [hold, holding, held]

1. To grasp or grip, e.g. Hold the pencil like this; Hold my hand; Please hold my coat for me.
2. To contain or store, e.g. This package holds six bottles.

elf

►noun

- A fictional creature like a fairy, often found in stories about Christmas, e.g. Santa Clause's elves help him to make presents to give out on Christmas day.

self

►noun

1. One's own being, If we are self-realized, then it means we realize the nature of our true self (i.e. Our eternal soul).
2. Without help, e.g. This is a self-starting pump; I am a self-motivated person; She is very self-important and is always telling others what to do.

silk

►noun

- A soft cloth made by the silkworms, e.g. The silk sari was expensive, so I bought a cotton one.

milk

►noun

- A white drink produced by cows, humans, goats (etc), e.g. Drinking cow's milk, makes our brains and bones strong.

children

►noun

- More than one child, e.g. There are 15 children in our class.

child

►noun

- A person under the age of 18 years, e.g. When I was a child, I lived in Kerala.

ranch

►noun

- A farm where animals are kept, e.g. We have horse and cattle on our ranch.

bench

►noun

- A long seat, e.g. They sat on a park bench and tossed bread crumbs to the ducks and pigeons.

inch

►noun

- A unit of length equal to 2.54 centimeters, e.g. Her hair was growing an inch a month.

pinch

►verb (pinch, pinching, pinched)

- To squeeze a small amount of a person's skin and flesh, making it hurt, e.g. I pinched his arm to get his attention

bunch

►noun

- A group of fruit growing together, e.g. I went to the market to buy a bunch of grapes; There are 6 bananas in this bunch.

lunch

►noun

- Food eaten at midday, e.g. We were meeting for lunch at Govinda's; What did you have for lunch today?

punch

►verb (punch, punching, punched)

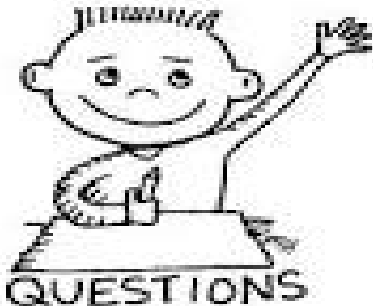

- (transitive) To strike with one's fist, e.g. He got angry and punched his friend in the face.

ask

►verb (ask, asking, asked)

- Look for an answer to a question by speaking, e.g. She was asking the way to the temple; If you don't understand something, please ask me and I will explain it to you.

task

►noun

1. A piece of work done as part of one's duties, e.g. The first task I have to do today is to clean my room; Homework means that the task should be done at home.

mask

►noun

- A cover, for the face, used for disguise or protection, e.g. The thief wore a mask.

dusk

►noun

- The end of the day; when the sun sets; The time between night and day, e.g. Mosquitoes come out at dusk.

husk

►noun

- The hard , brown part on the outside of coconuts, e.g. A coconut has a very thick husk.

tusk

►noun

- Long teeth of walrus, pigs etc, e.g. This elephant has long tusks; Walrus have tusks and they use them for fighting.

lamp

►noun

- A desk light, e.g. I brought a new lamp for my room.

camp

►noun

- A place where groups go for a tour, e.g. I am going on summer holiday camp; We went on school camp to Rishikesh.

►verb (camp, camping, camped)

- To live in a tent or similar temporary accommodation, e.g. We're planning to camp in the forest for one week.

damp

►adjective

- Slightly wet; moist, e.g. The grass was still damp so we decided not to sit down; I washed my hair this morning and it is still damp.

champ

►noun (shortened form of 'champion')

- The winner in a contest, e.g. He is a hockey champ; Sangita is our class spelling champ.

shampoo

►noun

1. A liquid soap product for washing hair or other fibers, such as carpets, e.g. I wash my hair with shampoo every Wednesday.

imp

►noun

1. Similar to a demon but smaller and less powerful, e.g. In stories we read about imps who hide people's keys.

limp

►verb (limp, limping, limped)

- To walk unevenly, e.g. She was limping on one leg.

►noun

- To not be able to walk properly, e.g. Ever since he broke his leg, he has a limp.

chimp

►noun

- (informal) Short for chimpanzee, e.g. The chimps in the zoo were eating bananas.

hump

►noun

1. A raised part of the ground, e.g. The car went over the speed hump.
2. A raised part on peoples back, e.g. The old lady had a hump on her back.

jump

►verb (jump, jumping, jumped)

- To lift up in the air by pushing from the legs, e.g. The boy jumped over a fence; He jumped for joy.

lump

►noun

- Something that sticks out, or sticks together, e.g. Men have a lump in their throat called an 'adam's apple'; Stir cakemix until there are no more lumps.

pump

►noun

- A device for moving water or air, e.g. We have a water pump to bring water up from under the ground.

►verb (pump, pumping, pumped)

- To move a substance by machine, e.g. I used a hand-pump to pump up my bicycle tyres; This ball has become flat, we need to pump it up.

thump

►noun

- A low sound, e.g. I heard a thump when he hit his head on the door; We could hear the thumping of the music from next door.

►verb (thump, thumping, thumped)

- To hit, e.g. She thumped him on the head with a book.

© Can Stock Photo - csp5810791

bump

►noun

- A swelling on the skin caused by illness or injury; a small hump, e.g. I got a bump on my head from the car accident.

►verb (bump, bumping, bumped)

1. To knock into someone or something, or meet someone by accident, e.g. I was not looking where I was going and I bumped into him; I bumped into my old friend at the market yesterday.